LITTLE CHANGE IN LINES OF BATTLE

Old Guard and Roosevelt Adherents Fight a Draw in Primaries.

COLONEL ASSERTS HE IS SATISFIED

Will Take a Hand in Drafting Platform—Other News in Politics.

New York, Sept. 14.—Political leaders in the republican party scanning the returns of the primaries held yesterday found the situation between the old guard and the Roosevelt adherents still unchanged today. Neither side appeared to have gained any advantage in the primaries, the Roosevelt forces carrying every district in New York county, where there was practically no opposition. In Kings county State Chairman Woodruff won nineteen out of twenty-three districts.

The old guard now claims they will go to Saratoga with 109 out of the 142 delegates from Kings, while Lloyd Griscom, chief lieutenant of Col. Roosevelt figures to have 233 out of the 364 delegates from the greater city to the state convention.

There were no changes brought about by the democratic primaries.

SAYS HE IS SATISFIED.

Roosevelt Will Take a Hand in State Platform-making.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 14.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt expressed satisfaction today over his victory in the republican primaries in New York county yesterday and at the same time said he was to take a hand in drafting the republican state platform.

"Naturally I am gratified at the result," he said. "It was no less than I expected."

He said that James B. Reynolds was coming from New York later in the day to confer with him on the labor planks in the platform.

Col. Roosevelt was asked about recent reports that he might accept the state chairmanship and that an effort might be made to force the nomination for governor upon him. He replied that there was no possibility of such a thing.

Col. Roosevelt feels that he has too much work outside of New York state to assume any office. He would not say whether he would accept the temporary chairmanship of the republican state convention if it should be offered to him. The former president feels that the question of the temporary chairmanship is one which can be best settled when the time comes.

Col. Roosevelt refused to make any comment on the statement issued yesterday by Wm. Barnes, Jr., of Albany, in which Mr. Barnes said that Col. Roosevelt was a dangerous man. The colonel is to go tomorrow to Riverside, N. Y., to speak at the Suffolk county fair.

GAIN MANY ADHERENTS.

Policies of Premier Canalejas Winning Favor in Spain.

Madrid, Sept. 14.—Count Romanones, president of the Spanish chamber of deputies, is quoted in an interview today as declaring that the policies of Premier Canalejas are daily gaining adherents among the adversaries of the government, as the country is convinced that he is working for the best interests of the nation. The count thinks that Spain will be emancipated from "fanatical clericalism," which he says, has for centuries weighed heavily upon it. The struggle is not against Catholicism but against clericalism which is impeding the industrial and commercial development of Spain and mingling in politics.

At the opening of the cortez Canalejas, according to the president, will announce an unmodified continuation of his religious program. The "Padlock bill," prohibiting the creation of further religious establishments until the revision of the concordat has been completed and a definite law on the subject has been passed, which measure is opposed by the vatican, but will not be withdrawn but on the contrary the senate will resume its discussion of the legislation.

NEW ZEPPELIN AIR CRAFT TORN BY EXPLOSION

Fifth in Series of Serious Accidents to German Dirigibles.

Baden Baden, Sept. 14.—If anything could discourage that intrepid apostle of aerostatics, Count Zeppelin, it would appear to have been furnished today when the Zeppelin VI, the latest model of his aerial invention, was torn by the explosion of one of the three motors located in the stern gondola. Three of the airships's crew were seriously injured.

The accident happened as the dirigible was being slowly worked into her shed here. The defective motor had been operating as usual when suddenly the crew was whirled from their posts in the rear gondola as the craft trembled and lurched. There was a sharp report, a flash of flame and in a moment the immense fabric of silk canvass was afire. The crew hardly realizing what had happened, tumbled over the sides of the airship, barely escaping with their lives. The fire spread so rapidly that the shed was soon destroyed.

Fifth Serious Accident.

This is the fifth serious accident which has befallen the Zeppelin dirigible, the histories of which have been brilliant, but brief, and usually end in disaster. The Zeppelin VI was under charter of the Passenger Airship company, having replaced in the passenger service the recently wrecked Deutschland. She was transferred from Freidrichshafen to this place and after being fitted with improved propellers and other new features made a trial trip on Aug. 19. She proved to be the speediest of her type and it was announced that she would maintain a speed of thirty-eight miles an hour. The dirigible was reconstructed to carry ten passengers and during the last few days had made trips to various places. Many Americans were among the excursionists. Baron Rudolf Goldschmidt-Rothschild had chartered the airship for the use of a private party next Friday. He had agreed to pay $500 for the first two hours of the excursion and $250 for each additional hour occupied.

The Zeppelin VI ascended at 11:30 o'clock with twelve passengers for a trip to Heilbrenn. The airship had covered twenty miles when a motor in the motor gondola acted badly. It was impossible to effect satisfactory repairs and after some time spent in futile efforts the airship returned here.

The Zeppelin I, after making an endurance flight that astonished the world, was torn from her moorings by the wind and thrashed herself to pieces amidst a thunderstorm. The Zeppelin II was destroyed by a gale at Limburg-An-der-Lahn on April 25 last. Zeppelin III made a bad landing and was seriously damaged at Mergentheim. The Deutschland came to grief in Teutoberg forest on June 28 last.

EFFORT TO THWART ALL ATTEMPTS AT FRAUD

Chicago, Sept. 14.—In answer to cries that fraud would be attempted at tomorrow's primaries the election board granted a hearing to representatives of reform organiations to devise means of maintaining the integrity of the election. State's Attorney Wayman announced he had employed a large force of private detectives to watch the voting.

Practically all of the democratic representatives and senators who voted to send William Lorimer to the United States senate are seeking re-nominations. Among these is Lee O'Neil Browne, the democratic leader who was acquitted last week of a charge of bribery in behalf of Lorimer's election.

The Illinois congressional delegation in the lower house numbers 19 republicans and six democrats. The republicans stood squarely behind Cannon in his fight to retain the power of the chair. Three Chicago congressmen—Boutell, Mann and Foss, republicans, are opposed by candidates running on the insurgent platform. J. T. McDermott, democratic representative in congress from the Fourth district, also has a fight on his hands. He is opposed by State Senator Edward Rainey, one of the democrats who voted for Lorimer for United States senator.

In the Eleventh district, one of the 15 outside of Chicago, Congressman Snapp withdrew, his backing going to George W. Conn, Jr. There is a hot fight on between Conn and Col. Ira C. Copley, the "progressive" candidate. There are three republican candidates for the seat vacated by Frank O. Lowden in the Thirteenth district.

EXPERTS TESTIFY IN CRIPPEN CASE

Skilled Hand Had Severed Dismembered Parts of Human Body.

CANNOT DETERMINE SEX OF THE VICTIM

Latter Fact Counted Upon as Important Point for the Defense.

London, Sept. 14.—Testifying at the resumption today of the Crippen murder trial, Prof. Augustus J. Pepper, pathologist of the University of London, said that his examination had convinced him that the human parts found in the cellar of the Hilldrop Crescent home were severed by a hand skilled in surgery and directed by a mind that possessed a real knowledge of anatomy.

The evidence of the medical experts has been awaited with eagerness and the famous little court room in Bow street was crowded. The prisoners in the dock presented contrasting appearances.

Dr. Hawley H. Crippen, who is charged as the principal in the murder of his wife, Belle Elmore, the American actress, was seemingly as cool and collected as ever. He did not miss a word of testimony and eagerly whispered to his solicitor, Arthur Newton, whenever he thought he had detected a point in his favor. On the other hand Ethel Clare Leneve, accused as an accessory after the fact, was wan and plainly in mental and physical distress. The police authorities had anticipated that the day would be a trying one for her, and accordingly she was attended for the first time in court by a wardress, who sat close to her.

Prof. Pepper was the first witness called by the prosecution.

Body Was That of Human.

At considerable length he described the examination which he made of the parts and set forth his conclusions. Witness said that he had identified pieces of flesh as belonging to various parts of the body, except the head, hands, forearms, feet and legs below the knees. He could say that the members found were undoubtedly from a human body. No bones were discovered, nor was there any trace of the genital organs.

The whole viscera was present intact and the only wound was a cut in the upper part of the windpipe. Other parts were left undisturbed by the one who did the cutting and the way in which the parts had been separated convinced the expert that whoever was guilty of the mutilation did his work with an exactness born of familiarity with the human body.

Prof. Pepper said that the hair discovered included a short strand of fair texture wrapped up in a handkerchief of the size commonly used by men. The witness identified particularly a piece of flesh six by seven inches in size as coming from the abdominal wall and which bore a scar, which, in his opinion, was undoubtedly left by a wound from an operation.

Cannot Establish Sex.

Under cross-examination Prof. Pepper admitted that he had been unable to establish the sex of the victim. The witness said that the scar was in a vertical direction and more than four inches in length. It was old and might have been on the body for a year, possibly many years. The condition of the organs recovered was healthy and in his judgment indicated a stoutish person in middle life whose hair was dark brown where it had not been artificially bleached. Witness said that he found no trace of the sex. The parts had been buried for not less than four months and for not more than eight months.

At this point Solicitor Newton took the witness in hand and asked him to be more specific in his statement as to having found "no trace of sex." The professor agreed with counsel that it was impossible for him in any manner to determine the sex from the parts of the body found and examined by him. This was considered as of great importance to the defense, as it had been generally believed that although certain organs had been purposely removed to conceal the identity of the victim, sufficient evidence would be introduced to establish that the body was that of a woman. The witness explained that he meant that he could not identify the sex anatomically. He was closely questioned regarding the scar and Newton tried to make out that what appeared as a scar might be merely an overlapping of the skin.

Would Have Necessary Skill.

Solicitor Newton suggested that a man specializing in the ear, nose and eye, like Dr. Crippen, would not necessarily be able to adroitly separate the members of a body, but Prof. Pepper thought that such a specialist as counsel described would have a general anatomical knowledge.

Newton was keen in seeking admissions from the pathologist and frequently exhibited heat when the witness refused to answer "yes" or "no" without qualifying his replies. Coun-

"The Man Higher Up."

Sentence on Mr. Heike, who has been called "the man higher up" is still pending.

DEFENSE SHOWS THE PUBLIC KNEW OF THE TOOLS

Also Indicates That Miller Was Ready to Move Before Murder.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Auburn, Ind., Sept. 14.—In defense of Herman Miller today Judge R. K. Erwin, chief counsel for the accused, offered in evidence a published account of the crime which appeared on the day Columbus Croy was killed and in which it was stated that a sledge and a chisel procured from the Keller machine shop were used to break into the Faulkner saloon.

This was to rebutt evidence adduced by the prosecutor tending to show that Miller knew what tools were used, although nobody had been allowed to enter the premises until the arrival of bloodhounds late at night. C. F. Bicknell, one of the publishers of the Fort Wayne Daily News, gave this evidence.

To prove that Miller had intended to move away from Woodburn before the crime took place Roy Eby was placed on the stand and told that he had arranged to rent Miller's home and had stipulated that it must be "fixed up" and that it had been recently papered for that purpose.

Fred Fuelling, a farmer living near Woodburn, testified that William Wearley told him the day of the crime that it was John "Red" Baker's voice he heard out there the night the marshal was shot.

William Garnhardt testified that the citizens of Woodburn gave Miller a revolver and a badge and said that J. Frank Butt made the presentation. The revolver was described and was not of the same caliber as the bullet that killed Croy.

Mrs. Miller's long cross examination was finished yesterday afternoon and as she left the stand she proclaimed the fact that she knew her husband was innocent of crime. Dr. C. B. Stemen, of Fort Wayne, testified that he believed a man shot through the heart with a large caliber bullet would fall dead in his tracks and could not move forty or fifty feet from the spot at which the death wound was received.

William Eggemann, county assessor at Fort Wayne, said Miller had entered his office before the murder and asked him about locating in Fort Wayne.

RAIL MAN CONTENDS RATE ADVANCE IS JUST

Wabash Official Applies New Figures to Cost of Living.

New York, Sept. 14.—The submission of statistical matters occupied the major portion of the hearing of the inter-state commerce commission which is inquiring today into the question of the increased freight tariffs in the eastern territory. Hugh L. Bond, counsel for the Baltimore & Ohio, railroad submitted date of wages and increased costs of supplies requested by the shippers several days ago. A number of additional tables asked for by the shippers were placed upon the record by Mr. Butterfield, of the New York Central.

W. C. Maxwell, traffic manager of the Wabash told the commission that he considered the suspended rates reasonable and added:

"We operate an expeditious merchandise service. In response to the shippers' demands we have had to carry goods in lightly loaded cars. This is expensive traffic and we get $37.50 as our share of the $75 for that class rate to Chicago and with higher wages and increased terminal charges we don't believe we can make a cent out of it. We must have more money to live."

Mr. Maxwell was asked how advanced rates would affect the cost of living and he replied it would add perhaps three mills to the cost of a pair of shoes sent to Chicago or St. Louis from Massachusetts. He thought a dozen eggs sent east from St. Louis would have to pay 1½ mills more freight charges.

ONE DEAD; EIGHT SERIOUSLY HURT

BAD LAMP CAUSED A GAS EXPLOSION

Transfer Few Hours Before Saved Hundreds from Awful Death.

Linton, Ind., Sept. 14.—One dead, one fatally injured and eight seriously hurt is the result of a gas explosion caused by a miner's defective lamp, in Vandalia mine No. 10, nine miles from here today.

There were 300 men working in the mine but they had been changed to another part of the mine this morning and this fact alone prevented a fearful disaster. Andrew Baxter is dead, David Reese is lying at the point of death with a fractured skull, and W. C. Beaty, Charles Young, Ora Parks, Frank Stewart, David Huston, James Huston, William Cleland and George Ross are seriously burned.

It is impossible to tell as yet just how serious these latter injuries may prove. The mine did not catch on fire, as was reported, and the fans have already put the shaft in working order.

Relief parties including practically all the doctors in Linton, hurried to the mine, as the first reports had it that more than a score were dead and as many more injured. The mine is nine miles from Linton and as the only telephone wire running to the mine is owned by the coal company, which had it in constant use, it was hard to get reports of the explosion and considerable excitement prevailed.

RUSHING EXPERTS.

Government Acts Promptly With Rescue Measures.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Experts in mine rescue work, under the direction of the United States bureau of mines, are being hurried to the Vandalia mine near Linton, Ind., to place their services at the disposal of the mine officials in any rescue work that may be necessary. Immediately upon being informed by the Associated Press of the disaster at Linton, the bureau of mines dispatched a telegram to the branch mine rescue station at Urbana, Ill., ordering the officials there to proceed immediately to the scene of the explosion with all necessary apparatus, such as oxygen, helmets, etc. The station at Urbana is fully equipped and in charge of R. Y. Williams and J. M. Webb.

Another telegram was sent by the bureau of mines to the officials at the headquarters of the Miners' Rescue bureau, in Pittsburg, informing them of the disaster. If additional assistance is needed more men will be sent either from Pittsburg or Nashville.

NO FLOWER SHOW THIS FALL.

Civic Department of Woman's League Considers Dry Weather Too Unfavorable.

The civic department of the Woman's league announces to the public school children who participated in the distribution of flower seeds last spring, that we do not believe from what we have been able to learn, that enough flowers have survived the very hot and dry summer to make an interesting and creditable showing, and have therefore, decided to abandon, for this year only, the annual flower show. But in order that the efforts of the children may reap a suitable reward the department will this fall plant a young ornamental tree or shrub in each school yard in the city where the seed distribution was carried. This will be a permanent benefit earned by the children for their schools. Further notice will be made to the schools through the principals.

SAW BARS WHILE AUTO CHUGS.

Newark Prisoners Held for Lynching are Foiled by Sheriff.

Newark, Ohio, Sept. 14.—What is believed to have been an attempt to liberate the fifty or more men who are in jail here on charges of participating in the recent lynching of Carl Etherington, an anti-saloon detective, was frustrated by Sheriff Slabaugh yesterday.

Three men in an automobile acted as accomplices. They halted in front of the jail and began tinkering with the machine, cutting out the muffler and running the engine so that a terrific noise resulted.

Under cover of this prisoners began to file the bars in one of the upper sections of the jail. Their actions were discovered by the sheriff, and after the safety of his prisoners had been assured he left for Columbus to notify the state authorities of the attempt.

FINNEY CASE ON TRIAL.

State Amended Affidavit After Hearing Was On.

The cases against Albert and William Finney, charged with entering and robbing the John Hedges saloon on Wells street, was on trial most of the day in the city court as efforts are being made to show that the latter had no connection with the robbery. The saloon holds its license under Hedges name but is conducted by Charles Miller and the state was forced to amend its charge in conformity with this development.

Frank McCay got into Muncie with $12 and a thirst. Muncie is dry but he soon learned enough about the town to buy whisky and he got drunk and drifted into Fort Wayne. He was begging on the street and drew $5 and costs. Dan Murphy and Thomas Morrisey drew $1 and costs each.

The cases against Gertie North and James Van Horn were continued until tomorrow.

PLAYERS' RANKS THINNED.

Plenty of Driving Room in Amateur Golf Play.

Brookline, Mass., Sept. 14.—There was plenty of driving room at the Country club today for the sixteen survivors in the second round of the title play among the amateurs of the country for the United States Golf association trophy. The field, however, was unusually strong with 36 hole matches for the next four days and with luck practically eliminated, the golfers went to the links today with confidence.

It is true that 188 starters on Monday fell by the wayside and this number included Champion Robert A. Gardner and former Champion H. Chandler Egan, both of Chicago. However, a member of the executive committee remarked that it was no disgrace not to qualify in such a field, for it was 25 per cent. larger than ever before, the links were 25 per cent more difficult, and the character of the play was fifty per cent higher. Of the sixteen men who started this morning in eight pairs for a double journey around the links, Boston laid claim to six, while three practically hailed from New York, three from Chicago and one each from Pittsburg, Toledo, Stockbridge, Mass., and Manchester, Vt.

state of Washington yesterday the old guard of the republican party lost everything. Miles Poindexter, of Spokane, an insurgent leader in the present house, was nominated for United States senator by 40,000 plurality, carrying every count, in the state. Two insurgents were nominated for congress. In the first congressional district, Humphrey, regular, seems to have received a plurality of all first choice votes and is probably nominated. In the second or Tacoma district, Congressman W. W. McCreedie, owner of the Portland base ball club and a "standpatter," was beaten by Stanton Warburton, insurgent. In the third, or Spokane district, Wm. L. LaFollette, of Pullman, insurgent, a cousin of the Wisconsin senator, was nominated.

RESULTS IN NEW JERSEY.

President of Princeton Likely to Be Nominated for Governor.

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 14.—Returns of yesterday's primaries in New Jersey indicate that former Governor Edward C. Stokes won out over former Governor Franklin Murphy in the contest for the republican endorsement for United States senator. Friends of Woodrow Wilson, president of Princeton university, claim he will have 1,000 of the 1,400 delegates in tomorrow's democratic state convention and that he will be the party's choice for governor.

Vivian M. Lewis ran ahead in nearly every district and will undoubtedly be the republican candidate for governor. The convention meets next Tuesday.

LOCAL OPTIONIST WINS.

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 14.—Coleman Livingston Blease, of New Berry, local optionist, has received the democratic nomination equivalent to election for governor of South Carolina. Returns from yesterday's primary received to noon today showed that out of a total vote for governor of about 105,000, a little more than 95,000 votes have been heard from and of these probably 50,000 are for Blease as against 45,000 for C. C. Featherstone, prohibitionist.

PROHIBITION ISSUE UP.

Florida Will Fight Out the Wet or Dry Proposition.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 14.—A campaign to determine whether Florida shall have state wide prohibition will begin here tomorrow with the assembly of two state conventions, the local optionists, opposed to the statewide principle, and the prohibitionists, favoring it. Upon the results of this campaign depends the question whether the entire southeastern corner of the United States shall be "wet" or "dry."

The issues is an amendment to the constitution providing for state-wide prohibition instead of local option, which Florida now has. This amendment will be voted on at the November election.

Both of tomorrow's conventions are called to lay plans for the campaign on this issue.

THROWS BOUQUET TO TAFT.

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 14.—At the opening of the state republican convention the committee on resolutions presented its report in which President Taft is called a good and great president. The report in part follows:

"In Wm. Howard Taft the American people have a good and great president—one of the greatest the white house has known. He brought to the chief magistracy a wonderful training and equipment for its duties. He has been a faithful custodian. He has given the country a law abiding, law enforcing administration. At once conservative and progressive, patient under misrepresentation and detraction, Wm. Howard Taft has set an example of official fidelity and pure patriotism to all his successors in the presidency."

MISSOURI IS FOR FOLK.

Democratic Platform Censures Cannon, Roosevelt and Taft.

Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 14.—Platforms of the democratic and republican parties in Missouri were completed here today by the parties leaders, who have been in convention two days. The principles announced will guide the candidates who seek election in November.

In the democratic platform Jos. W. Folk, former governor, is endorsed for president in 1912. The platform denounces the Payne-Aldrich tariff law and declares for tariff for revenue only. Criminal prosecution of trusts is urged. One plank declares for merchant marine and a strong navy. The party, the platform declares, favors an employers' liability law and the abolishing of convict labor. The solution of the liquor question is local option, according to the platform. Speaker Cannon is censured and Col. Roosevelt and President Taft are denounced.

The administration of President Taft is endorsed in the republican platform which favors the principles of a protective tariff law, reducing of the tariff on necessities and increasing it on luxuries. A tariff commission is urged.

The conservation of public domain is favored and the administrations of former President Roosevelt and of President Taft are endorsed for their activity regarding the conservation of natural resources.

TO SUCCEED SENATOR HALE.

Waterville, Maine, Sept. 14.—It was learned definitely today that Chas. F. Johnson, a prominent lawyer of this city, will be a candidate to succeed United States Senator Eugene Hale next March. He will formally announce his candidacy soon. Leading democrats declare that his election is practically certain.

sel intimated that Doctors Wall and Turnbull, experts engaged by the defense, had reached conclusions differing from those of Prof. Pepper in some particulars and turning to the witness said: "Your qualifications have nothing approaching theirs. Both are eminent among their number, as you know."

A brief re-examination by the crown closed the evidence offered by the witness and was gruesome throughout.

WANT AGREEMENT ENDED.

Manheim, Germany, Sept. 14.—The association of west German manufacturers has adopted resolutions calling on the government to give notice to the United States of the termination of the patent agreement made February 28, 1909, on the ground that the same is detrimental to the interests of German inventors, patent owners and German industries generally, or to pass a revised patent law, which shall deprive Americans of certain privileges they now enjoy under the international agreement.

Attention Sick Women

If you had positive proof that a certain remedy for female ills had made many remarkable cures, would you not feel like trying it?

If during the last thirty years we have not succeeded in convincing every fair-minded woman that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured thousands and thousands of women of the ills peculiar to their sex, then we long for an opportunity to do so by direct correspondence. Meanwhile read the following letters which we guarantee to be genuine and truthful.

Hudson, Ohio.—"I suffered for a long time from a weakness, inflammation, dreadful pains each month and suppression. I had been doctoring and receiving only temporary relief, when a friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and wrote to you for advice. I have faithfully followed your directions and now, after taking only five bottles of the Vegetable Compound, I have every reason to believe I am a well woman. I give you full permission to use my testimonial." —Mrs. Lena Carmocino, Hudson, Ohio. R. F. D. No. 7.

St. Regis Falls, N. Y.—"Two years ago I was so bad that I had to take to my bed every month, and it would last from two to three weeks. I wrote to you for advice and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in dry form. I am happy to say that I am cured, thanks to your medicine and good advice. You may use my letter for the good of others." —Mrs. J. H. Breyere, St. Regis Falls, N. Y.

There is absolutely no doubt about the ability of this grand old remedy, made from the roots and herbs of our fields, to cure female diseases. We possess volumes of proof of this fact, enough to convince the most skeptical.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

ATTEMPT TO BRIBE THE PROSECUTOR

Stephen Leonard Indicted by Grand Jury of Steuben County on That Charge.

Angola, Ind., Sept. 14.—An attempt was made last week by Stephen Leonard it is now charged, to bribe the deputy prosecuting attorney, Thomas Wickwire, to drop the prosecution of Bob Cameron, of Fremont, under indictment for violation of the liquor laws, the grand jury having returned three indictments against him.

The first of last week the deputy prosecutor was approached by a man named Stephen Leonard, who wanted to know if arrangements could not be made by which the indictments against Cameron would be dismissed. Wickwire asked him to come to the office and they would talk the matter over. Leonard did so. He said that the prosecuting witness was going to Michigan and would not be in court when the cases were called and if the deputy prosecutor would dismiss them at this time he would pay him $25. Mr. Wickwire said he would take the matter under advisement for a short time and asked him to return on Wednesday for a definite response.

In the meantime, Mr. Wickwire arranged to have the sheriff and an ex-county commissioner secreted in a stairway near the office door so that they could hear the conversation. The "briber" appeared at the appointed time, repeated the offer and laid the $25 on the table. Mr. Wickwire refused.

The conversation was heard by the gentlemen in the stairway. The matter was referred to the grand jury then in session who returned an indictment against Stephen Leonard, who offered the bribe, and he was placed under arrest.

DEKALB COUNTY IN GOOD SHAPE

Can Build Its New $250,000 Courthouse Without Increasing its Tax Levy.

Auburn, Ind., Sept. 14.—Architect M. S. Mahurin, of Fort Wayne, was in conference with the DeKalb county commissioners yesterday in reference to the new $250,000 courthouse that is to be built in this city. The architect requested that the court house lot be surveyed, and the county surveyor will make surveys on Friday or Saturday of this week.

Mr. Mahurin stated that he would begin drawing the plans on next Monday and expects to have them in a presentable condition within sixty days. He states that the old building should be razed yet this fall so that the contractor who is awarded the contract of building the new edifice will not have that to contend with. A contract will be drawn between the commissioners and the architects within a few days.

DeKalb county is in good shape financially for the building of this new courthouse and it is the belief that it can be built without it being necessary to raise the tax levy a single cent. There will be in the county treasury by December 31 of this year, $90,000 that can be used to pay upon the building and the arrangements are such that all the future payments can be made without an increase of the levy. And this, too, although the county is now paying for a new infirmary building, recently erected. Financially, DeKalb is one of the best counties in the state.

YOUTHFUL HIGHWAYMEN.

Judge Did Not Think the Hold-Up Was a Joke.

Logansport, Ind., Sept. 14.—Fred Schum and George Boose, the youthful highwaymen who held up William Diamond Sunday morning for a joke, were bound over to await the grand jury. The two boys were charged with highway robbery, and the police authorities do not think it much of a joke when they stopped Diamond with a revolver.

Diamond, who was the victim of the joke, states that $4.35 of his money was taken by the robbers, and he fails to see any joke in the hold up. When arraigned before Judge S. G. Gifford in police court, the preliminary hearing was waived because both boys had admitted the hold-up, and the lads were bound over to await the grand jury on $250 bond. The boys were unable to get bond, and they were sent to jail. Their parents will probably secure the bond for them and they will be released.

WIFE A FAULT FINDER.

That's What Husband Says in Divorce Complaint.

Columbia City, Ind., Sept. 14.—James P. Keen, who is an electrician at Churubusco, has brought suit against his wife, Ida M. Keen, for divorce. The plaintiff alleges that they were married August 24, 1879, and separated permanently on June 1, 1910. He says that she found fault with their home, told him to leave numbers of times, swore at him, struck him, accused him of immoral acts, denied him the rights of a husband for the past two years, and otherwise made life hateful to him. He says they have four sons and that all are over twenty-one years of age, and that he wants all the relief the law will allow him.

CHARGED FOR VACATION.

Decatur, Ind., Sept. 14.—Mayor Judson W. Teeple has called a halt on paying for services that have not been rendered by the employes of the city. Not long ago an employe took a vacation and went to Michigan. It is said that he was absent from his post of duty for ten days, but when the time came his bill was filed for the full period and no deduction was made for the time he was absent. The mayor has so far refused to sign the allowance and is making an investigation of the affair.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

Barn in Whitley County Was Burned to the Ground.

Columbia City, Ind., Sept. 14.—The barn on the farm of Francis B. Kelrn, in Thorncreek township, a few miles northwest of the city, was struck by lighting at midnight Monday, and burned to the ground, without a chance to save any of the contents, and there is no insurance to cover a loss of $800.

The stroke was so terrific that Mr. Kelrn and family were awakened by it, and saw flames shooting from the barn almost immediately. By the time they could reach the barn, it was a roaring mass of flames, and soon burned to the ground.

A mower and disc harrow, sulky, riding cultivator, two tons of hay, 100 bushels of oats in the straw, and lumber that was stored for building purposes, were lost in the blaze.

In the state of Washington, also, the "old guard" appears to be a total loss.

Political prophets who are preparing to declare "I told you so" after the November elections can vastly enhance their reputations as reliable prognosticators by coming forward at once with an accurate list of the calamities that are due to overtake the "old guard" when voters all over the country get busy this fall.

The silence which is following Professor MacMillan's announcement that he has invaded hitherto unexplored lands west of Davis Inlet leads one to suspect that the public is possessing itself in patience until it is certain there is to be no repetition of the case of Commander Peary and our old friend, Doc Cook.

Among other things recently demonstrated is the soundness of the judgment of Senator Eugene Hale, of Maine, when he announced some months ago his intention of retiring from political life. Senator Hale is evidently more adept than some of his esteemed colleagues at deciphering the handwriting upon the wall.

There can no longer be any doubt that Fort Wayne is in earnest upon the river improvement and other propositions of civic beautification. The movement is enlisting widespread and substantial support, as it deserves to do. Once an actual physical start is made, and an opportunity is given for ocular realization of its possibilities, this city will be no cry for quarter and that the the bettered conditions, if it is not already so.

The country is anxiously awaiting further developments from the sessions of Colonel Roosevelt's board of strategy which assembled a few days ago in solemn conclave at Oyster Bay. Mr. Roosevelt may not be able to achieve a complete triumph against his political enemies in the Empire state political arena, but he is certain to contribute largely to the gaiety of the New York struggle this year and to leave in his trail a large and varied assortment of broken political heads.

One of the most monumental legal battles this country has ever seen is promised in the case of the Chicago meat packers just indicted for conspiracy in restraint of trade. Counsel for the accused men declare that there will be no cry for quarter and that the cases will be met and fought squarely upon the issues involved. This decision may have been based in a measure upon the recollection that the "immunity bath" termination in similar cases a few years ago was not accepted by the public as the last word in the matter.

For the first time since he became the executive of the state, Governor Marshall will be accompanied by a staff when he leaves Indianapolis Friday for Antietam, where the monument recently erected to the Indiana soldiers who died on the battlefield will be dedicated. The staff will be composed entirely of state militia officers. On the special train will be, in addition to the governor's party, Colonel J. R. Fesler, assistant adjutant general of the Indiana G. A. R.; Major W. W. Daugherty and J. B. Stimson, all of the Twenty-seventh Indiana, which took part in the fight; Captain David E. Beem, of Spencer, a member of the Fourteenth Indiana, which also took part and sustained the heaviest percentage of loss of all the regiments engaged, and W. N. Pickerill, of Indianapolis. Mr. Pickerill, Captain Beem and Major Dougherty are members of the commission which had charge of erecting the monument. A number of other members of regiments engaged in the battle also are expected to leave on the train. At Antietam Governor Marshall will make an address accepting the statute and delivering it to the United States.

The country has long taken a complacent pride in the presumed efficiency of Uncle Sam's standing army, and it is something of a shock to have Inspector General Garlington, with a blunt frankness almost Rooseveltian, tell us it isn't anything of the sort. The inspector general catalogues a long list of criticisms. Nearly one-third of the line officers, he says, are absent from their commands on detail. The system is faulty because it aims to teach too much, instead of specialization. Few of the officers have marched with more than a regiment and the army as a whole is unprepared for field service. The new regulations, about which so much has been trumpted, are admitted to be theoretical or dependent upon the experience of European armies. Our transportation service it is conceded is the same as at the beginning of the civil war, no use having been made of automobiles, traction engines or modern methods of transportation. A march by a complete army corps would, it is said, speedily expose the weakness of our system. While the infantry is as well trained in the use of the rifle, if not better, than most other armies, its marching capacity is pronounced below mediocrity and this is a vital factor.

CAUGHT AFTER LONG CHASE.

Man Wanted in Tennessee Arrested in Colorado.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 14.—W. H. Statham, wanted by the authorities of Memphis, Tenn., on charges of forgery, was arrested at a hotel here yesterday by detectives after a chase of over 1,800 miles. Statham, who is apparently only about 25 years old is said to have secured thousands of dollars from banks in various cities by means of forged checks. His arrest was caused by the American Bankers' Protective association, following alleged operations in Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis, New Orleans, Dallas and other cities. Statham, who declares that he is a newspaper writer, was living here in the manner of a man of unlimited means.

M'KINNIE PARK PLACE

Indications Point to a Record Breaking Sale.

Numbers Have Already Visited the Addition and Made Reservations for Saturday's Openipg.

The McKinnie Park Place when opened to the public on Saturday afternoon of this week will without doubt place a new high water mark for the greatest number of lots sold at any opening sale ever held in the city.

Inquiries in person and by phone at the office of W. E. Doud, third floor Shoaff building, and also at the addition office located at the corner of Lafayette and McKinnie avenue, have lead the owners of this addition to believe that the entire allotment of 180 double lots and ¾ acre tracts will certainly be disposed of within less than ten days from the opening sale which occurs Saturday afternoon of this week at 2 p. m. Nothing less could have been expected, however, when one takes into consideration the reasons for this activity.

The city of Fort Wayne is growing rapidly. It already has a large population south of the railroad, which will now be materially increased on account of track elevation. Almost every prominent manufacturing establishment and all of the railroad shops are located on the south side. The city must of necessity grow to the south.

In this addition you can buy ¾ of an acre facing two streets which will divide into four or six lots, as low as $200. You can buy a lot 70 and 75 feet wide for $150. You need not be told that these lots will of necessity double in value in a very short time.

The terms of this sale are $5 in cash and $5 per month with the privilege of paying as much as you please at any time, with a discount of 10 per cent for cash in sums of $50 or more within 60 days. No interest is charged until Jan. 1, next. No taxes until 1912. Go out at once and investigate and be ready for the opening sale Saturday afternoon.

SAYS CHURCH IS RUN BY "BOSS."

Monmouth, Ill., Pastor Stirs Congregation in a Pointed Sermon.

Monmouth, Ill., Sept. 14.—Rev. C. D. Maple, for twenty years pastor of the Cameron Christian church, stirred up a hornet's nest in his sermon Sunday night on the subject, "The Beast and the Bloodhounds," the main point being that his church was controlled by a boss of a religious ring. The preacher said that for the last ten years he has labored in the defensive, but now he proposes to take the offensive and threatens to bring the matter before the Illinois Christian missionary convention, now in session at Springfield. Although the preacher did not name the boss, it is generally understood to whom he referred.

Battle Creek Alderman Accused of Favoring Harvey, Ill., Concern.

Battle Creek, Mich., Sept. 14.—Alderman Ralph Erskine, democrat, was yesterday afternoon bound over to the circuit court for trial on the charges of accepting a $50 bribe from James Olney, salesman for the Austin Western Manufacturing company of Harvey, Ill. The alderman's friends had hoped the case, resulting from alleged graft in connection with the purchase of a road roller, would be dropped in the justice court. Justice Balderf, however, considered the evidence strong enough to warrant binding Erskine over.

SKIN DISEASES

HUMORS IN THE BLOOD

Nature has made ample provision in the moisture and sunshine of the air for the outward protection and healthy condition of the skin. But the more important work of nourishing the cuticle has been left to an inward source—the blood. It is from the circulation that the pores and glands receive their stimulus, and the fibrous tissues are all preserved in a healthful state because of constant nutriment supplied by the blood. It is only when the circulation becomes infected with humors or acids that we are troubled with skin affections. The humors producing these troubles are carried through the circulation direct to the skin, and their irritating or inflammatory effect remains until the blood is cleansed. S. S. S. cures Skin Diseases, because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It goes into the circulation and REMOVES the acids and humors which are causing the trouble, builds up the weak, acrid blood, and completely cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, pimples, rashes, and all eruptions of the skin. When S. S. S. has driven out the humors every symptom passes away, the skin is again nourished with cooling, healthful blood, natural evaporation is renewed, and the skin becomes soft and smooth. Book on Skin Diseases and medical advice free.

TO AVOID POLITICS IN PRISON HEAD SELECTION

Will Be No Haste in Picking Successor to Late Warden Reid.

Indianapolis, Sept. 14.—According to a report current, it is not probable that the board of control of the state prison at Michigan City will select a successor to the late warden, James D. Reid, before December or January. The board adjourned its recent September meeting at the prison without selecting a date for a special meeting, which makes the next session come at the regular time, the 1st of October. The September meeting was held on the day following the sudden death of the warden and no candidates for the appointment were considered by the board and no applications were received. No formal consideration of applications can be had before the October meeting, unless a special meeting is called for that purpose, which is said to be very improbable.

It is further said that it is not likely that any applications will be considered in the October meeting. The current fiscal year closes September 30, and the board will have for consideration the usual amount of financial work for the October session, which probably will take all and more of the time usually allotted to the monthly meetings. Deputy Warden Garner is now in charge of the institution and is going ahead with the building under way. His work is satisfactory to the board in his present capacity, and there is said to exist no reason for hasty action on the part of the board.

Persons who have the interests of the state prison at heart are urging the board to take all the time necessary to a full and careful consideration of all applicants, from both within and without the state. It is held that if the board should proceed to make a choice in the midst of a political campaign there would be danger of such influence being brought to bear that the best choice might not be made. Although the law provides that politics shall not be considered in the selection of a warden, the politicians over the state are rushing in to support various candidates, thus giving the situation a political phase in spite of the law.

It is said that there are a number of names which have been submitted as applicants, although none of them is being made public. Those of Peter Kruyer, of Plymouth, and former Mayor E. J. Fogarty, of South Bend, have become known, although not through official sources.

Fifteen months ago when Will H. Whittaker, superintendent of the state reformatory at Jeffersonville, resigned, the board of trustees selected his successor, Major D. C. Peyton, within a week after the resignation, and this fact is being pushed forward by politicians who are seeking hasty action in the state prison matter. It is explained, however, that in the affair of the reformatory, both the superintendent and the assistant superintendent resigned at almost the same time, making quick action necessary, since there was no one in the institution to whom the superintendency could be entrusted.

Now when Meyer Bros. Co., the well known druggists, make such an offer as that, where, oh, where, is the man or woman full of Uric Acid poison, which is the same as rheumatism, who is going to turn it down?

Meyer Bros. Co. have sold a whole lot of Rheuma these last few months, and if it didn't do as advertised they couldn't afford to make the offer.

Here is more proof: Porter Smith, Dobbin, W. Va., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from Rheumatism for about 26 years, and the disease had become chronic. I began taking Rheuma with little faith in its virtues, but was better from the first day I began its use, and at this time have no more pains."—Feb. 20, 1910.

Rheuma never shirks its duty. It begins with the first dose to act on the kidneys, liver, stomach and blood, and to eliminate Rheumatic poison from the whole system. 50 cents at Meyer Bros. Co.'s or mailed by Rheuma Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Send for free trial bottle.

GREAT FORT WAYNE FAIR NEXT WEEK

Yes, it will be a great fair at Fort Wayne. Secretary P. T. Strieder has said so, and he has behind him a board of directors who will spend the money to make it go. Never in the history has the Fort Wayne Fair association had more ginger in it than this year. About $20,000 will be spent for premiums, stakes and purses. The moral character of the fair will be unquestioned. The speed department will be the best ever. The exhibits of products, machinery and live stock will excel previous fairs.

Up to the present time spaces have been taken in the art building as follows: Fox Bros. & Co., furniture and house furnishings; Foster Furniture Co., furniture and house furnishings; C. C. Schlatter & Co., hardware; Pfeiffer & Son, hardware; Goeglein Bros., hardware and stoves; Mrs. Karn, pianos; Guy Conklin, pianos; Geo. Jacobs, pianos; Singer Sewing Machine Co., sewing machines and art work; Indiana Paint and Varnish Co., paints; Pixley & Co., clothing; Seavey Hardware Co., hardware; People's Store, ladies' apparel; Pickard House Furnishing Co., furniture and house furnishings; Wolf & Dessauer, ladies' apparel and furs; Pape Wall Paper Co., wall paper; Paul E. Wolf, upholstery; F. B. Arnold, electric goods; C. Schiefer & Son, factory exhibit showing the process of making shoes. The latter will prove a new and interesting feature in the art building, showing, as it does, the manner of shoemaking from the hide to the finished product. It was secured through the efforts of Mr. Hartwig, of the firm of C. Schiefer & Son.

The entries for the needlework, painting and art booths in the art building are quite complete and will represent the handiwork of people in Allen county. There will be the usual large exhibit from the Indana School for Feeble Minded Youth.

Among the agricultural exhibits will be those of Viberg & McMaken, C. C. Schlatter & Co., Goshen Mfg. Co.

The Milford Robe and Tanning Co. will have a special exhibit of fur coats, gloves, mittens, etc.

The wheels have been set in motion in the progress of improvements at the grounds. The track is in the best shape, the buildings have been renovated, the weeds and all unsightly objects removed. The Fort Wayne fair will be opened next Tuesday, following Indiana's state fair, and many attractions will come directly here from that big show.

People within a distance of fifty miles in all directions are interested in the fair and the attendance this year will undoubtedly bring to Fort Wayne the greatest crowd it has ever entertained at a similar event.

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means that it never fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take and equally valuable for children and adults. Sold by all dealers.

WADING JUMPERS FOR SURF.

The small girl who has her petticoats turned up for a glorious paddle at the edge of the waves is liable, as mothers know, to wade in just a bit too far, or to sit down suddenly on the soaked sand with disastrous effects to her dainty costume. Wading jumpers of light rubberized silk have shoulder straps to hold them up securely and an elastic keeps the lower edge firmly in place.

HAL REID

In The Kentuckian Closes Engagement This Evening.

Hal Reid in "The Kentuckian" will close a three-days engagement at the Majestic this evening. The author-actor is seen in the role of Dave Morton, "The Kentuckian." Mr. Reid was born in Kentucky, raised there, and has written of a people whom he has known almost all his life. The scenes of the play are laid in the mountain district, and each scene is faithfully reproduced. The play tells the story of love, hatred, revenge, laughter, tears and forgiveness; therefore running the gamut of every human emotion. Messrs. Rowland and Clifford have surrounded Mr. Reid with a company of people selected by the author for their respective fitness for the parts they portray.

Majestic—"David Copperfield."

A writer declares books dangerous things but there are many exceptions particularly fiction, that instructs. David Copperfield is one of them. At a luncheon which the New York City club gave recently, Harold E. Gorst, the English writer on political affairs, presented some of his ideas about fundamentals of education. Mr. Gorst is in this country for a year to study our educational systems.

After decrying the tendency to cram the mind with theoretical or book knowledge, thus largely destroying the normal functions of observation, he said: "Books are, therefore, dangerous things unless handled with discrimination." While there is much wisdom in the above, there are books which encourage thought and reflection beneficial to the mind. Charles Dickens' works belong to this class. Dickens was a very close student of human nature, and his characters while strikingly quaint, depict men and women met with in daily life. This is particularly true of his "David Copperfield," which, while fiction, admirably portrays affection, brusqueness, humility, deceit and other human attributes. From Dickens you can learn more than you can by perusing thousands of other books. To see the coming presentation of "David Copperfield" by Manager Edward C. White's carefully selected company, will give an insight into the power which made Dickens the foremost writer of fiction. It will be presented at the Majestic theater on Thursday, Friday and Saturday with matinees on Thursday and Saturday.

At the Temple Theater.

Leo Beers, the clever pianologiste at the Temple theater this week in one of his numbers describes a flirtation that once took place and the tale is told entirely by the arrangement of well known songs. If you are familiar with the popular songs of the day here is an opportunity for you to win a substantial gift.

To spur the public on to further interest in this number the Temple management announces that a mail box will be established at the theater where guesses on the full list of songs in their order may be left. On Friday three awards will be made to those sending in the correct list of songs. The first prize will be $3, the second $2, and the third $1. The only condition is that the winners must be in the theater on that night else the awards will go to other than the first three correct answers. Guesses may be dropped in the box as late as Friday night, the lists may also be mailed to the theater or left in the box office.

BRITON FLYING MEET CHAMPION

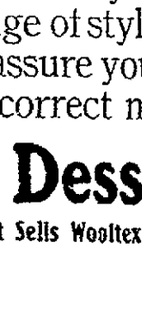
Boston, Sept. 14.—Claude Grahame-White, of England, flying a Farman biplane and a Blerlot monoplane, each equipped with a French motor, proved himself the champion of the first annual Harvard-Boston aero meet at the close of the nine days' competition last night, having won the blue ribbon event of the meet, the Boston Globe prize of $10,000 for his harbor flight to Boston and return. He took altogether four first places and three seconds in different events, winning $22,100 in prize money.

While the regular competitions for prizes ended last night, the management will continue the exhibition through two days more, offering substantial prizes for new world's records.

Walter Brookins and Ralph Johnstone, who fly Wright machines, came in for a good share of the prize money at the meet, Johnstone getting three first prizes and one second, which netted him $5,000, while Brookins took in $4,250 on two first places and one second.

HOW HAPPY THE WORD 'CUTICURA' SOUNDS TO ME

For It Cured My Baby of Itching, Torturing Eczema. First Came when Between 3 and 4 Weeks Old. Used Everything Imaginable. 2 Cakes Soap and One Box Ointment Cured.



"I can't tell in words how happy the word 'Cuticura' sounds to me, for it cured my baby of itching, torturing eczema. It first came when she was between three and four weeks old, appearing on her head. I used everything imaginable and had one doctor's bill after another but nothing cured it. Then the eczema broke out so badly behind her ear that I really thought her ear would come off. For months I doctored it but to no avail. Then it began at her nose and her eyes were nothing but sores. I had to keep her in a dark room for two weeks. The doctor did no good, so I stopped him coming.

"For about two weeks I had used Cuticura Soap for her every day, then I got a box of Cuticura Ointment and began to use that. In a week there was a marked improvement. In all I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and my baby was cured of the sores. This was last November; now her hair is growing out nicely and she has not a scar on her. I can not praise Cuticura enough. I can take my child anywhere and people are amazed to see her without a sore. From the time she was four weeks old until she was three years, she was never without the terrible eruption but now, thanks to Cuticura, I have a well child. Mrs. H. E. Householder, 2004 Wilhelm St., Baltimore, Md., May 10, 1910."

Cuticura Remedies are sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston. Mailed free, latest 32-page Cuticura Book.

There Is Some Cooking You Must Do

As long as the human system craves and demands cooked foods, there is some cooking you MUST do at home. Cooking is hard work, even to those who enjoy it, and every man should see that his wife does no more than is absolutely necessary.

Why Cook What You Need Not Cook?

Take bread, for example. Bread does not have to be served hot—it is not healthful that way—so that the cooking may be done hours before the meal. Bread just as good as any woman can bake can be bought at every grocer's; and it costs less in actual money to buy ready-baked bread than to bake it at home. So what reason is there for baking bread at home? There is none. (Habit is only an excuse, not a reason.)

Which Bread to Buy

It is all a matter of taste. Both "Perfection" and "Quality" are good breads, but with different flavors. Take whichever you prefer, or both, if you like variety.

Here are some salient features of both "Perfection" and "Quality:"

Purity, 100 per cent.
Cleanliness, 100 per cent.
Wholesomeness, Perfect.
Digestibility, Perfect.
Nutriment, Almost All FOOD.
Flavor, Both Delicious.

Take whichever you prefer, and get it at your own dealer's. "Quality," ten cents a loaf of double the five-cent size; "Perfection" in the old five-cent size, and double loaf at ten cents. Wrapped at ovens? Certainly.

Date Jam.

Remove the stones from two pounds of nicely washed dates. Put them into a saucepan with one pound of sugar, one pint of water, one teaspoonful of butter, the grated rind of one lemon, and a dash of nutmeg. Simmer until thick, stirring frequently, pour into glasses and finish as for fruit jellies.

Roasted Chicken With Olives.

Heat one tablespoonful of butter or sweet dripping in a frying pan, add three tablespoonfuls each of chopped onion, celery and carrot and stir and turn until lightly browned through. Add this to one pint of fine stale bread crumbs with one heaping tablespoonful of chopped parsley, one teaspoonful of salt, one-third of a teaspoonful of paprika or white pepper, two tablespoonfuls of finely chopped olives and sufficient melted butter to moisten. Clean and stuff the chicken, truss into shape and roast in a hot oven for one hour and a quarter, basting frequently with melted butter and water. Stone and pound to a paste two dozen large olives, add one-half of a cupful of strained tomato and heat in a saucepan. When the chicken is taken from the oven pour the gravy into the saucepan and boil up sharply until reduced one-third. Skim off the fat, season with salt and pepper to taste, add half a dozen stoned olives and serve with the chicken.

IN THE CHURCHES

CHURCH BODY INCORPORATES.

The St. Joseph Conference of the U. B. Church.

The St. Joseph conference of the United Brethren church, which embraces sixty-six congregations in the northern part of the state, and of which Fort Wayne is a part, has filed articles of incorporation at Warsaw and Indianapolis and the conference is now a legal body, with all the powers and rights of an incorporation. Among the incorporators is Rev. G. F. Byrer, the pastor of the church in this city, he having been selected as such at the last church conference held at South Bend.

The incorporation is done as a safeguard in the transaction of business. It can borrow and loan money, receive bequests and transact other business as a conference body in a much more safe manner than it could without being a corporate body.

Remarkable Growth Not a Surprise

THE REASON IS THAT MERIT WILL INVARIABLY WIN OUT.

The remarkable growth of the Root Juice Medicine Company, of Fort Wayne, Ind., is not a surprise to the many thousands of people that have bought and used the wonderful Root Juice Compond, as merit will invariably win out. The great medicine has permanently cured so many people all over the country that it is now hard to find someone who does not know of one or more remarkable cures resulting from the use of the discovery. In this locality scores of people have tested the merits of the remedy and are praising it so highly to their friends that it is no wonder the large sales of Root Juice at Bradley Bros.' drug store do not diminish, but rather keep on the increase. It is generally believed the reason the remedy makes so many remarkable cures is because of its wonderful soothing, healing and tonic properties, which seem to have a very quick and direct effect on the stomach, bowels, bladder, liver and kidneys. Scores of home people, whose names are freely given at the drug store, have called to tell of the remedy curing them of nervousness, rheumatism, kidney troubles, bloating, belching, heartburn and other symptoms of bad digestion.

PACKERS TO FIGHT CASE OUT ON ISSUES

No Cry for Quarter from the Indicted Beef Packers.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Packers indicted by the federal grand jury do not intend to cry for quarter. No legal technicalities or "immunity baths" will be asked. They intend to invade the United States district court in full battle array and fight out the charges of a monopoly and restraint of trade with the government.

The war promises to develop into one of the greatest legal battles in history. Arraigned on one side is the department of justice, with the wealth of the government behind it. On the other side the most prominent meat dealers in the world. They are arranging for a legal corps under the direction of Attorneys Levy Mayer and John S. Miller, which will be on par with if it does not outweigh that of the government.

Stand of the Packers.

The stand of the packers was outlined yesterday by one of the counsel for the indicted men. He said:

"We intend to ask no favors in this fight. We are in for the finish. No 'immunity baths' or escape through technical points are to be sought by us.

"We contend that our clients have not violated the law, but that their dealings, whatever they may have been, were in the public's favor.

"It is my belief that the question will be settled once and for all in these cases. We intend to proceed slowly and when our defense is in we believe that the public will not view the loudly proclaimed predatory packers with so much disfavor."

Two More True Bills?

While the battle lines were being drawn to protect the packers from the first blow struck by the grand jury, rumors were persistent about the federal building that two more true bills were pending. One is to be against a Chicago packer already under indictment, it is said, and the other against a New York man.

The indictments, it is said, will be based on charges arising out of the acquisition of the New York Retail Butchers' association, formerly an independent concern, by the National Packing company. The two true bills are expected to be returned within a week.

While seven of ten indicted packers were appearing at the federal building yesterday and giving bonds in the sum of $10,000 on each of three indictments, the government prosecutors rested.

FREEMAN COOPER DEAD.

Former Law Partner of J. W. Kern Had Interesting Career.

Henryville, Ind., Sept. 14.—The death yesterday of Freeman Cooper ended the career of one of the best known real estate developers in southern Indiana.

Mr. Cooper came here about ten years ago from Kokomo, where he was at one time a law partner with John W. Kern, lately defeated candidate for vice president and now opposing Albert J. Beveridge for the United States senatorship.

Mr. Cooper gave up the law business on account of ill health and took up the real estate business as an occupation, locating in Henryville.

While engaged in this business in Henryville he had, through his ingenuity and wide advertisement of Indiana state forest reservation and other resources, raised prices of land in many cases in Clark and adjoining counties nearly 100 per cent. It is known that Mr. Cooper had done more to develop the real estate field in southern Indiana than any other man. The cause of his death was paralysis. He was a man of unusual ability and was an accomplished lawyer. The remains will be buried at Kokomo, his former home. His widow, three sons and one daughter survive.

BOARD WILL MEET TO TALK OVER CONTRACT

Members of the board of public works will meet in a short time to take some action on the repudiation by the city council of the Pittsburg meter contract and in the meantime will continue to buy as many meters as are necessary for immediate use under the arrangement that is now existing.

The administration thinks it bought the best meter at the best price and felt that the approval of the circuit court stamped the contract as a good one and the officials are a bit angered at the repudiation which they attribute to politics. New bids will probably be asked for. There was no surprise when the committee on contracts and franchises filed a report at the meeting of the city council last night intimating that four of the eight bidders were in collusion and stating that the committeemen do not believe the board bought the most serviceable meter.

Lighting Plant Levy.

In his message accompanying the controller's recommendations on the appropriations for next year and fixing the tax levy Mayor Grice insisted on the tax levy of 7½ cents for the municipal plant, saying the money is needed for extension and development. General Manager C. D. Emmons and Attorney J. M. Barrett were present for the Fort Wayne and Wabash Valley Traction company, but took no action.

Ordinances carrying the appropriations and fixing the levy were placed on second reading and referred to the committee of the whole and on motion of Member Bauer will be considered in executive session. For four years last past these measures have been discussed in open session. The petitions for city beautification were presented and also went to the committee of the whole and will be taken up behind closed doors. The concrete figures submitted by Controller Cutshall are as follows:

—Estimates.—

Dept. of Finance	$ 57,463
Dept. of Law	400
Municipal Court	250
Bd. of Pub. Wks.	107,469
Bd. Pub. Safety	133,674
Bd. Pub. Health	6,890
Public Parks	20,900
Total	$327,036.00
Total last year	291,155.60
Increase	$ 35,880.40

—The Levy.—

General purposes	$ .84
Sinking fund	.05
Monument fund	.00¼
Police pension fund	.01
Firemen's pension fund	.01
Electric lighting fund	.07½
Track elevation fund	.06
River beautification	.04¼
Total	$1.08

If the reports are in printed form by Thursday night it is likely the committee of the whole will hold its meeting then. Two increases recommended in the estimates of the board of safety are the salary of the street commissioner from $900 to $1,200 and the street foreman from $720 to $900. The board of public works says it can not get good men at the old salaries. The board of public safety said eight more patrolmen are needed, but did not ask for salaries to pay them.

An ordinance appropriating $300 for the purchase of a motorcycle for the police department went to the committee on finance.

An appropriation of $534.28 was made to pay for resurfacing Berry street in front of the postoffice.

The ordinance providing for the licensing of automobile drivers went to a second reading and was referred to the committee on rules, regulations and ordinances. The fee is to be $1 and none shall be granted to any person under sixteen years old.

Notice was given by the board of public works that action had been taken toward the removal of a fence around some city property at Broadway and Berry streets.

Says Police is Derelict.

Councilman Schroeder announced that the policemen are derelict in their duty and said that if they perform all that is required of them they can take much of the burden off the sanitary force, which could be cut down.

There was a fight on the report recommending the payment of $100 to Former Chief Ankenbruck and Patrolman Paul for money expended in defending a law suit, but it went through eight to seven, with Councilmen Hamilton, Kinder, Pfeiger, Sarver, Sweringen, Wagner and Welch voting against it. An ordinance appropriating money to pay the claim was referred to the finance committee.

HORNED MEN FOUND BY SCIENTISTS IN MOUND

Canyon Yields Skulls of Peculiar Race of Aborigines.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 14.—The "horned men of Topango" have been discovered—that is, they are almost horned, and of a physiognomy so strange that the scientists who unearthed them are almost persuaded that the existence in the long ago of a hitherto undreamed of race of aborigines has been demonstrated.

Prof. J. R. Pendleton of the geological department of Stanford university, with a party of Stanford students, has just returned from the mountains near Santa Monica, in southern California.

In the Topango canon, in the heart of a district long known to have been the home of the Indian tribes now extinct, the excavators found one mound containing the bones of thirty-four aborigines.

From flint arrow heads imbedded in the skulls and from the crushed skull bones, that bore every evidence of having been beaten in by war clubs, Professor Pendleton says it is plain that the ancients died in battle.

But of more scientific interest is the amazing countenances conjured up by the skulls found by the scientists. The brow is almost totally lacking, rising from the line of the eyebrows only three-quarters of an inch, and the top of the head being almost flat. The nose projects almost horizontally, hornlike, and with no resemblance to the human nose.

Off Day Followed by Bad Lot of Base Ball Doings

Locals Kick the Ball and Zanesville Walks Away With the First Game of the Final Series.

An off day is a jinx.

Members of the Fort Wayne team generally give a bad exhibition after a day of rest and in the opening battle with Zanesville they did a little worse than usual. Six costly boots were injected into the game and Alberts chipped in a wild pitch for good measure.

Prof. Kenworthy was sent to the mound for slab duty and two runs were gleaned by the locals in the early stages of the combat, but he tightened up as the struggle grew older and the two tallies, which were a present from Ned Crowder, who worked a two base throw out of his salary arm, were all that were tabbed against him.

Charlie Alberts, who has been emulating the little girl with the curl all season, went along nicely for three innings, but in the fourth the Potters opened a fusilade that netted thirteen hits before hostilities ceased. Some of the bingles were flukes caused by the muddy grounds, but there were enough solid smashes in the affair to have won it hands down.

Blount opened the game by beating a slow grounder to Crowder and Justice duplicated. McDermott moved both up with a bunt, but Blount was retired at the plate on Young's grounder and Gainer went down easily from pitcher to to first.

The Welshman cracked a nice single to right in the third and moved up on Justice's out. McDermott beat a bunt and stole second and romped over with Blount when Crowder threw to the bleachers on Gainer's grounder.

With a man gone in the fourth Hillinger hit, but was retired trying to make third on Herold's grounder. Herold stole second and scored on O'Brien's rap to middle. Singles by Hargrove, Baggan and Crowder and Kenworthy's sacrifice gave the Athletics a run in the fifth.

Although Bill Hillinger had his hard grounder over second in the sixth beaten, Frank Donahue took a peg at first anyhow and lofted the ball to the bleachers. Then Alberts fumbled Herold's sacrifice and when O'Brien bunted as his half of a squeeze play, Bailey failed to pick up the ball in three of four attempts and another run went over. Baggan scored in the seventh on Montgomery's double after he had reached first while Kenworthy was being retired at second.

In the eighth O'Brien rammed a grounder to McDermott that was too fast to handle and went to second when Prysock was retired at first. Hargrove hit to middle and O'Brien scored, McDermott fumbled Kenworthy's grounder and Hargrove took third, scoring on a wild pitch.

Montgomery, Herold and O'Brien hit in the final inning and sent over the seventh run.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Baggan did a dandy piece of sprinting when he went over the foul line in the fifth and picked off Young's fly.

Lee Lemon reported and practiced with the team, but his finger was too sore to permit him to play.

Alberts complained that he did not feel well before the game and Corns wanted to go in.

Burke retired from the coaching line early in the action. He was disgusted with the exhibition put up by his second placers.

Blount made a hard try for Hillinger's drive in the fourth, but did not quite get the ball in his glove.

Young could not connect with Kenworthy and struck out twice out of four times up.

Kenworthy works fast in the box and keeps the batters and base runners on the alert every minute.

Bailey made a good throw in the fourth and had O'Brien standing up at second, but Donahue dropped the throw.

Fast fielding robbed Dal Gainer of a triple when he banged the ball to the left field fence in the sixth.

O'Brien is up and going all the time and injects a lot of ginger into the game. He is putting up a good exhibition at first.

SHAMROCKS TO TRY FAST TEAM ON SUNDAY

Will Go to Detroit and Leave an Open Day Here.

There will be no base ball game at League park Sunday afternoon for the reason that the Fort Wayne Shamrocks will go to Detroit to take on the S. and S. club, one of the fastest semi-professional clubs there and the date here is left open.

The reason for this is that there was talk of transferring the Wheeling and Zanesville games here which would have given an extra Sunday on the local lot and after the Potter management had refused for the reason that there is a booster day on at Zanesville Saturday it was too late for Manager Mart Cleary to change his plans.

Sir William Robertson, pitching expert from Coshocton, O., will be on the firing line for the Shamrocks and Walter Miller will play in the outfield. They will then join the Fort Wayne club for the finish of the year.

The club that Cleary's men will meet is one that has taken on such teams as Callahan's Logan Squares, Donahue's Red Sox and the Chicago Gunthers and for that reason the manager is loading up with some good pitching material.

Manager Bo Slear, of the Jackson team will go to Detroit to look over Farrell, Henline, Long and Reddin, whom he has signed for next season. His reason for hustling down here and picking up the men is that several other Southern Michigan league managers had their eyes on the Shamrocks and had intended to take a look at the men on Sunday.

After this game away from home the Shamrocks will play at home until the season is over, beginning with the game against the Fort Wayne league club.

WINNERS IN CARD WRITING CONTEST ANNOUNCED.

In the recent card writing contest conducted by the M. J. Marttene Piano Co., Mrs. Theresa Kinder, 2336 New Haven avenue, was awarded first prize. The second prize was awarded to Miss Grace Webber, 1308 Fairfield avenue, while the work of Mrs. M. G. Norris, 511 East Creighton avenue, won the third prize.

Mr. Marttene received an unusually large number of replies and many of them showed that a great deal of time had been given to the work. The test consisted in seeing who could write the name of the piano company the greatest number of times on a small piece of paper of a given size.

BOWLING RULES ARE READY FOR THE MEETING

Committee Suggests Few Changes to Better Conditions.

All of the members of the committee consisting of Ben Ungemach, John Leist, George Stang, Harry Dreibelbiss and William Houdebush were present at a meeting last night for the purpose of revising the rules for the two big Brunswick leagues and several changes were suggested, principal among them being the shortening of the time for playing postponed games from fifteen to ten days after the date upon which they are scheduled.

If the suggestions are adopted the captain of the team seeking a postponement must notify the captain of the opposing team twenty-four hours in advance and get his consent. This consent can be refused and a forfeit claimed.

Postponements will be bowled on other alleys than those specified for league bowling and both teams must bowl at the same time and be represented by full clubs. This means that the custom of allowing one club to bowl one night and another on a different night will be abolished.

There are a number of minor changes suggested and if they are followed the game will be placed on a better basis this season than at any time in the history of league bowling in Fort Wayne. Purely business methods in handling the sport will be adhered to and better results are anticipated.

The next meeting of the bowlers will be held on Friday night at the Brunswick, when the league will be organized and officers elected. There is unusual enthusiasm at the opening of the year and a strong effort will be made to equalize the playing strength of the teams so that the race will be interesting the entire year.

The averages from last season show that there are plenty of bowlers to make the clubs better and places will be made for beginners by distributing them among the twenty clubs.

TIDBITS OF SPORTING NEWS

Monday afternoon Louis Wehner, one of the owners of the Dayton team, entertained the ball club at his country home. Yesterday the team fell before the tail-enders although nothing stronger than chicken gravy was printed in the menu.

Manager Fred Clarke's popularity is not confined to Pittsburg, as was demonstrated Sunday at Chicago, when the fans who witnessed the struggle between the Corsairs and the Cubs cheered the leader of the Champs every time he went to bat. Clarke has well earned the reputation he enjoys as being one of the best baseball managers in the biz, leagues.

Some of the Central league papers print the story that Hughie Tate is to be tried out as a minor league manager next season. Tate probably started the story himself as there could be no other excuse for it.

Grant says that the reason he did not get a chance to sell Lejeune to one of the major league teams is that he kept him too long at first base.

Edward Konetchy, Roger Bresnahan's star first baseman, is afraid the Athletics will beat the Cubs in the world's series. "While I'm a National league man at heart and will naturally pull for the Chicago team to win, I'm afraid the Athletics will beat the Cubs," said the big first baseman last night. "The Chicago pitching staff is not what it's cracked up to be. Mordecai Brown is not the pitcher he was last year, and nothing like the Brown who won the world's championship for Chicago in 1907 and 1908."

If Lejeune is willing, and there's no reason why he shouldn't be, a new record for long-distance throwing may be set this fall. The Pittsburg and Cincinnati clubs will have a field day at Cincinnati October 9, and as an added attraction $25 will be offered him to make an attempt to beat his own world's record of 399 feet 10¾ inches, made at the field day in Cincinnati in 1907.

Grand Rapids Press: Mr. Kihm is the leader of the Grand Rapids hitting forces with the magnificent percentage of .239 flat. The rest of the Raiders, exclusive of the pitchers trail down until we find Pat Millerick hitting at the tremendous clip of .164. After noting the batting averages we must felicitate the Gee Raps on their ability to stay out of last place.

The secret is out. Ty Cobb owes his wonderful hitting ability to the fact that unconsciously he was using only one eye; at least so the doctors say. As a matter of fact, this is not half as funny as it sounds. The rifleman uses one eye to insure greater accuracy in shooting, the artisan squints one eye to get a better line, and most judges at the finish of horse races close one eye to insure more certainty in placing. Then why should not a baseball player get better results for the same reason? It might be a good idea for some of the weak hitters to try the experiment, at any rate.

Sheridan is to wear glasses hereafter when he is umpiring. The chief of the American league staff will not try to stand behind the bat any more, but will confine himself to judging the plays on the bases.

SOUTH BEND HAS TO WIN ONE GAME IN RACE

Another Victory Will Put the Clamp on the Championship.

If South Bend can win one of the eight games that remain to be played, of which six are scheduled on the home grounds and five are with Terre Haute and three with Evansville the pennant for 1910 will be clinched. As the clubs stood this morning Fort Wayne could have cashed by winning all its games, provided the Bronchos dropped all theirs.

This is a million-to-one shot and there is every probability that the leaders will make a little gain, as Fort Wayne has six games on the road while South Bend is finishing up at Springbrook park. Fort Wayne will not lose second place unless Dayton shows a burst of speed that will land six of its eight games of which half a dozen are to be played on foreign grounds.

In the opening game of the last round with the Tots Patrick Henry Lindsay was bumped for eight bingles, but excellent support from his pards gave the Hottentots only three runs. While this was going on Pickett was getting a drubbing with the hits so systematically grouped that they netted ten runs and an easy victory.

One of the hits gleaned by the Benders was of the two-bag variety and Bob Wells promoted it. Lindsay was wild and gave seven passes during the encounter.

Larry Lejuene was out of the Evansville lineup and his place was taken by Lewis, one of Grant's prospects for next season. Buck Sterzer and Prof. Webb hurled a left-handed duel in which honors were even until Kihm came up in the ninth and pounded the ball over that short left field fence for the only run of the battle.

Benny Jewell cut in with a perfect batting average at Dayton and got four hits out of as many times up and one of them was a triple. These swats went a long way toward winning the game from Dayton for the Stogies who hit Cy Clyde freely. Half a dozen hits were made off Compton, but they were scattered and unproductive.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

George Paskert gained one on Bob Beecher in the game at Brooklyn when he stole a base while the latter didn't get a chance. Dolly Stark played in the game and got a hit along with six fielding chances. Jack Rowan pitched and was hit hard, but kept the hits scattered and won.

Casey Hagerman was hit hard in his game against Sioux City, but he managed to pull out a victory for the Denver team.

Ed Walsh struck out thirteen men on the thirteenth day of the month and although he allowed but three hits St. Louis beat him 1 to 0.

Ty Cobb, who has been out of the game with a bad eye, went to bat in the ninth inning of the Cleveland game in the hope of pulling out a victory and struck out.

Benjamin Franklin Hunt, the Boston American's new pitching wonder, was hammered out of the box by the Highlanders in the last game of the series, which New York won.

Dygert, who has been on the bench most of the season, pitched against Washington and allowed four hits, which netted him a shutout.

Mathewson was taken out in the eighth inning of the first game at New York and Dickson, who succeeded him was hit for a home run in the ninth with the bases full. In the second game Lelfield and Leever were hammered up for fifteen hits.

Stremmel, for Columbus, and Craig, for Indianapolis, went sixteen innings to a nothing-to-nothing tie in the final game of the series between their two teams. Errors by Williams and Keene lost the first game for the Indians.

THE SHOP AND RAIL NEWS

RUN DOWN BY A LOCOMOTIVE

Forest Myers Hurt While Crossing Railway Tracks.

WAS EN ROUTE TO PENNSY SHOPS

Had Five Ribs Broken, Scalp Cut and Spine Hurt.

F. Myers, a young man who is employed in the Pennsylvania boiler shop as a helper, was struck by the engine pulling the eastbound Wabash Continental limited as he was riding his bicycle across the tracks at Lafayette street last evening and was severely injured. His wounds include five fractured ribs, a severe cut in the head and possibly spinal and internal injuries. The injured man was immediately conveyed to Hope hospital, where he is receiving surgical attention. Mr. Myers is eighteen years old and has been employed at the Pennsylvania shops since January 5. He was en route there to do some extra work last night when the accident happened.

HURT WHILE PLAYING BALL.

Frank N. Caskey, a helper in the Pennsylvania boiler shop, was struck by a ball while in the game Saturday afternoon and sustained painful injuries to one of his shoulders, which has disabled him since.

WILL GIVE A TEA.

Division 18, Grand International auxiliary to the B. L. E., will give a tea tomorrow afternoon at the home of Engineer and Mrs. W. H. Gates, No. 2116 South Clinton street. They extend an invitation to all members and the friends of members to attend.

FIRST FLOOR WIRED.

F. G. Duryee and his workmen have completed the work of placing the wires and other electrical appliances in the first floor of the new office building at the Fort Wayne Electric works and will take up work on the second story tomorrow. This is a big job, but when it is completed, no building in Fort Wayne will be equipped in this line equal to the office building at the 'Lights.

SICK AND IN HOSPITAL.

Albert Hanson, of the Wabash erecting shop, is quite sick with gall stones in the railway hospital at Peru. He went there two weeks ago with an injury and when nearly well enough to come home, he was taken with his present malady and commenced treatment for it.

STEEL EMBEDDED IN LEG.

While at work in the Pennsylvania boiler shop this morning, at 4 o'clock, Boilermaker William Dennis sustained a peculiar and painful accident. A piece of steel was thrown out by a blow upon the plate and embedded itself in his leg. He had to call upon the company's surgeon to have the metal removed.

HAND BURNED BY ELECTRICITY.

While working with a wrench in the testing room at the Fort Wayne Electric works this morning, J. H. Rapp created a short circuit from which he received a shock that passed through and painfully burned his right hand. He will probably be able to resume work in a day or two and is congratulating himself from escape from more serious injury.

SHOP CLERK RESIGNS.

Ed Kleinhenz, who took a clerical position in the office of General Foreman Hugh Hogan, at the Pennsylvania machine shop, last February, resigned last night and will take employment in some of the stores down town. The vacancy has been filled by the appointment of August F. W. Kuhlbach, formerly messenger in the master mechanic's office. Mr. Kleinhenz came here from Decatur, Ind.

WILL GET AN INCREASE.

The B. R. T. and the O. R. C. men employed on the Cincinnati Northern, a Big Four line, were successful in their fight for an increase in wages. At a conference between the committees and the railway officials yesterday a new wage scale was signed, which is about the same as that granted the Big Four employes a few weeks ago. The working conditions of the Cincinnati Northern trainmen were also changed to conform with those of the Big Four.

TO USE CONCRETE TIES.

The Queen and Crescent road will soon begin replacing its wooden ties by reinforced concrete ties, which were invented by B. M. Ballard, of Birmingham, Ala., and given a thorough test. These ties are made in two sections with a bar of steel that holds the rails in place, giving needed elasticity, as rigid track would par rolling stock to pieces. The rails are attached to steel bars, countersunk, and do away with the necessity of spikes to hold them in place.

SHOP AND RAIL NOTES.

Engineer J. M. Lamp, of the G. R. & I., has gone to Chicago to spend a day or two with friends.

G. C. Denehy, C. Hoepner and W. Lepper, Pennsylvania shopmen, are sick and off duty.

Theron Hughes has taken employment as a helper in the machine shop of the Wabash.

Thomas Pritchard, one of the old moulders at the Bass foundry, is sick and off duty.

Milo H. Sechler, chief dispatcher at the Grand Rapids and Indiana offices, is on duty today after an absence of several days on account of sickness.

Charles N. Kickley, the electrician, has recovered from his recent illness and resumed work at the Pennsylvania shops after an absence of a week.

A. L. Hadley, of the engineering department of the Fort Wayne Electric works, has gone to Madison, Wis., on business for the company.

Ed Lebrecht, of the Pennsylvania machine shop, was presented with a baby boy yesterday, the first child in the family. Mr. and Mrs. Lebrecht reside at 133 Esmonds street.

Pontiac street car No. 185 was derailed at the Wabash tracks this morning, demoralizing travel between the south and the north portions of the city for awhile.

D. O. Melson, a painter at the Wabash shops, resumed work this morning. Some days ago he sustained injuries to his head which disabled him until today. He fell off the scaffold he was working on.

Ray Poulsen, of the ticket office of the L. E. & W. at Muncie, was visiting friends in the city yesterday. He was once Mr. Pinniger's ticket salesman at the Lake Shore office, resigning to take his present position.

F. A. Thompson, I. L. Walker and William Bright have returned to their respective duties in the factory of S. F. Bowser and Company. Each was married within the past two weeks and took a short wedding trip.

Nickel Plate engines No. 311 and 274 which figured in the head-on collision at Colby on Sunday morning, will be sent to the Stony Island shops for repairs.

The Lake Erie and Western is the first to announce reduced rates to this city on the three days of the Shriner's mardi gras, October 3, 4 and 5. It is understood that other lines contemplate a similar rate, but they have not yet made the announcement.

Supt. J. C. Sullivan, of the Wabash, in a bulletin to yard men and trainmen, calls attention to the fact that the loses sustained to cars and contents by rough handling of the cars is 2 2-3 per cent. of the freight earnings. He advises more care in handling the cars in the yards and out on the road.

The Toledo papers say that the people injured in the Hocking Valley wreck, in which George J. DeVilbiss, formerly of this city, lost his life, will recover. Samuel Neadu, the fireman, is the most seriously injured, having been badly scalded about the legs and body, but he will recover. The entire train went down an embankment and all the cars turned over. The remains of Mr. DeVilbiss were taken to Columbus, where funeral services will probably be held tomorrow.

The Nickel Plate is doing a big business among the foreigners along the line of that railway, who are moving west to engage in farming and to take up employment on the big ranches. Hundreds have gone west during the past few weeks and the movement will continue for at least a month. These foreigners go to Montana, Colorado, and Texas. Many go to work in the sugar beet fields which are being harvested at present. The Russians, Hungarians and Poles make admirable farmers and their tastes run to that line of employment. They are particularly useful in the sugar beet industry, having considerable knowledge of that particular branch of farming.

The Bowser Grays will play the third game of the season with the Concordia ball team on the latter's grounds next Saturday afternoon. The two former games were won by the Concordias. The Bowser Grays are also anxious to play the winners of the shop league a game at the close of the league season and it is likely they will be given an opportunity. The Bowsers were connected with the shop league at the beginning, but pulled out before the series of games began. Foot ball and later basket ball will soon attract attention from the shop men. The Electro-Technics have already started an organization for foot ball and will be ready to announce the line up in a few days.

TRIBUTE TO MEMORY OF LATE J. F. W. MEYER

Retail Merchants Adopt Testimonial and Resolutions.

In tribute to J. F. W. Meyer, the veteran druggist whose death occurred recently, the Retail Merchants' association, of which he was a member, has adopted the following testimonial and resolutions, written by D. N. Foster, chairman of the resolutions committee. The testimonial follows:

"During the last week occurred the death of Mr. J. F. W. Meyer, the president of the Meyer Drug company of this city. At the suggestion of the president of this club I have prepared the following testimonial to our departed friend and brother merchant:

"Mr. William Meyer, as he was familiarly known, was born Dec. 10, 1824, at Westphalia, Germany, and was, therefore, at the time of his death, nearly 86 years of age. He came to this country in 1847, when 23 years of age. His first employment in America was in the clearing of timber land in Adams county, but in the spring following he became the driver of a team on the Wabash and Erie canal. In 1849 he entered the drug store of Hugh B. Reed, at the corner of Calhoun and Columbia streets. In 1843 he became a partner of the drug house of Wall & Meyer, and thus was started the Meyer Drug company, which has continued in business up to the present day. With the exception of Mr. Christian Tresselt, he was the oldest merchant in Fort Wayne, having been continuously in business for himself for fifty-seven years. He remained in the harness to the last, as regular, as active and energetic at his place of business as a man of fifty.

"Fort Wayne has never numbered among its citizens a finer character. He came nearer to living in his daily walk and conversation the real Christ life than any man I have ever met. I had known him long and well, but if I were asked, in the thirty-five years of my acquaintance with him, to single out even one solitary act of his that was not in accordance with the simple Christian life he led, I could not do it. He was always kind, always generous, always sympathetic, always helpful. His word was as good as his bond. He inspired universal confidence in all who met him. He was the interested friend and counsellor of many thousands of those who knew him and they were all his friends. No higher eulogy can be passed upon him than to say that the world is appreciably better because William Meyer has lived in it. He left to his children no heritage so precious as the memory of the splendid life he lived in his quiet, cheerful, helpful way."

The resolutions adopted by the association are:

"Resolved, That we do hereby express our grief and sorrow at his death, our reverence for his memory, and our sincerest sympathy with the loved ones he has left behind, and that they may know in what high and affectionate estimation he was held by his associates of the business world, be it further

"Resolved, That a copy of this testimonial to his character and worth as a man and as a citizen be sent to his bereaved family and be also spread upon the record of the proceedings of this meeting."

BANK FINDS ITSELF A VICTIM FOR $150,000

Mercantile National of New York Accuses a Wily Borrower.

New York, Sept. 14.—Officers of the Mercantile National bank reported to the district attorney yesterday that they believed the institution had lost in the neighborhood of $150,000 through a man whose dealings with it are under scrutiny. Mr. Whitman would not say at first who his visitors were nor would he name the institution.

"There is an investigation in progress in which a financial concern is interested, but it is not in such shape that I can talk about it," was all the district attorney would say.

It was said in the criminal courts building that the man referred to is not an officer or employe of the Mercantile bank but an outsider who borrowed through the regular course of business. It is alleged that money was obtained by means of securities of doubtful authenticity and a commercial rating falsely secured. Furthermore it is said that before the investigation is ended other banks and trust companies—probably three—will figure as losers through the same man.

The man in question was himself in the district attorney's office during the afternoon and made a statement in the presence of the Mercantile officials to Mr. Whitman. The fact that he was not arrested indicates that the complainants themselves were not absolutely sure their disquieting client had come in contact with criminal law.

The man was followed out of the criminal court building by detectives. He went to an uptown hotel and there he was watched to see that he did not leave the jurdisdiction. He thus, to all intent and purpose, is a prisoner.

Willis G. Nash, president of the Mercantile bank, over the telephone last night confirmed the statement that the district attorney was making an investigation in the interest of his bank.

"The matter is in the hands of the district attorney," said Mr. Nash. "I do not care to do or say anything that might interefere with his plans."

When Emil Klein, cashier of the bank, was told of the amount the institution is credited with losing and the manner in which the money was supposed to have been obtained he said, "You are wrong about the amount. I may add that you are wrong about the method."

INDIANA FAILED TO HONOR ST. CLAIR

No County in State Bears Name of Early Governor Who Served Well the Territory of Which State is a Part—Interesting Figure in America's Early History.

Indianapolis, Sept. 14.— The states of Illinois and Michigan both have St. Clair counties and Michigan has a city of St. Clair, but the name does not appear on the map of Indiana. Indiana has Harrison county, named for her first territorial governor, and Posey county for her second, but none for St. Clair, who antedated both of them by many years. Moreover, St. Clair held office by a higher title than either of the others, for he was elected by congress before the constitution was adopted, while the others were appointed by the President several years later. Yet his name is not preserved in Indiana. Thereby hangs a tale of political intrigue and injustice which, on account of its relation to the early history of Indiana, is worth recalling.

Arthur St. Clair was a Scotchman by birth, born in 1734, well educated. He entered the British army when very young and served with distinction many years, most of the time in America. In 1762, having married a fortune, he resigned his commission and became actively identified with colonial affairs. When trouble began to brew with Great Britain he sided with the colonists and eventually took an active part in the revolutionary war. He rendered distinguished service and was a close friend and trusted adviser of Washington. After the war he was president of congress and in 1787 was elected governor of the northwest territory, including the present states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, etc. This was nearly two years before Washington's first election as President.

Lost Fortune Serving Country.

General St. Clair's long military service and his neglect of private affairs had embarrassed him financially, and he was reduced from affluence almost to want. In a letter to a friend he said: "In the year 1786 I entered the public service in civil life, and was a member of congress and president of that body when it was determined to erect a government in the country to the west that had been ceded by Virginia to the United States, and in the year 1788 the office of governor was in a great measure forced upon me. The losses I had sustained in the revolutionary war, from the depreciation of the money and other causes, had been very great, and my friends saw, in the new government, means that might be in my power to compensate myself and to provide handsomely for my numerous family. They did not know how little I was qualified to avail myself of those advantages, if they existed. I had neither taste nor genius for speculation in land; neither did I think it very consistent with the office." He wrote further that the acceptance of the governorship was an unwise act on his part, but he had "an ambition of becoming the father of a country and laying the foundation for the happiness of millions then unborn."

Governor St. Clair arrived at Marietta, at the mouth of the Muskingum river, in February, 1788, and began at once to organize a territorial government. The question of statehood had not begun to be considered. St. Clair was the first territorial governor appointed in America and no other ever had so large powers. There were very few whites in the northwest territory at tht time, only two or three small settlements in Ohio and a French settlement at Vincennes, but there were plenty of Indians and St. Clair had authority to make war on them, make treaties with them, extinguish their title to lands or extinguish the Indians themselves if he could.

Government Marred by a Defeat.

In less than six months after his arrival at Marietta he had formulated a plan of government for the vast territory under his jurisdiction. In January, 1790, he made a trip from Marietta to Fort Washington, where Cincinnati now stands, thence down the Ohio river to Clarksville, in the present limits of Indiana; then to Kaskaskia, in "the Illinois country." During the trip he changed the name of the settlement at Fort Washington from Losantiville to Cincinnati, thus saving posterity from the infliction of a very awkward name for Ohio's future great city.

St. Clair's services in organizing and establishing city government in the northwest territory were of the greatest value, the only things that marred his administration being his disastrous defeat by the Indians, November 3, 1791. "St. Clair's defeat" was remembered in the west a long time and the failure of the ill-starred expedition was one of the saddest events in early American history. But the same thing might have happened to any other commander, and has happened to some. St. Clair, inexperienced in Indian warfare, was surprised, attacked by superior numbers, and his force was routed and cut to pieces. Part of it was raw militia and when attacked in the early morning they fled, throwing away their arms and accoutrements even after the pursuit had ceased. St. Clair acted with great gallantry, and did his best to rally the flying troops, but their lack of discipline made it impossible. He himself was sick, suffering from a painful disease, and unable to mount or dismount a horse without assistance. Perhaps he was not in fit condition to lead the expedition, but there was nothing in his personal conduct to censure. His high character and previous military experience, first in the British and then in the revolutionary army, should have saved him from personal censure.

Exonerated by Congress.

Feeling the stigma of defeat, he resigned his military command, but a committee of congress after full investigation reported that "the committee conceive it but justice to the commander-in-chief to say that, in their opinion, the failure of the late expedition can in no respect be imputed to his conduct, either at any time before or during the action, but that as his conduct in all the preparatory arrangements was marked with peculiar ability and zeal, so his conduct during the action furnished strong testimony of his coolness and intrepidity." In an article published in 1896 Theodore Roosevelt throws upon General St. Clair a large part of the responsibility for the failure of the expedition and the defeat and criticises St. Clair's military dispositions. "St. Clair," says Mr. Roosevelt, "should have covered his front and flanks for miles around with scouting parties, but he rarely sent out any, and, thanks to letting the management of those that did go devolve on his subordinates, and to not having their reports made to him in person, he derived no benefit from what they saw." General St. Clair had served in two armies and fought in two wars. In 1895 when the foregoing was written, Roosevelt had never been under fire.

As already stated, a committee of congress exonerated General St. Clair of all blame, and Dillon, a careful historian, says in his "History of Indiana": "The principal causes of the failure of the expedition were the mismanagement of the quartermaster's department, the unfavorable season at which the army marched to attack the Indians, and the want of discipline in the troops. The failure of the expedition can not justly be imputed to the conduct of the commander-in-chief, at any time before or during the battle."

Removed by Jefferson.

Although the disaster led him to resign his command of the western army, he continued in office as governor, and at the expiration of his term was reappointed by President Adams, but he was removed by President Jefferson in 1802. His removal was due to political intrigue and party spirit, which ran very high at that time. He was succeeded as governor by General William Henry Harrison, whose jurisdiction, however, did not include Ohio. St. Clair was an ardent federalist, not in favor of early statehood for Ohio or Indiana, and was opposed to slavery on principle, as might be expected of a Scotchman. General Harrison was a Jeffersonian republican, in favor of early statehood and friendly to slavery, as might be expected of a Virginian. St. Clair was active in preventing the establishment of slavery in Ohio, while General Harrison at one time favored its establishment in Indiana, and in 1802 presided over a convention at Vincennes that memorialized congress in favor of it.

St. Clair's public service as governor of the Northwest territory, from 1788 to 1802, entitled him to better treatment than being driven out of office and into poverty. His service during the revolutionary war, in which he raised and equipped a force at his private expense, had crippled him financially, and a long official term away from home had wrecked his fortune. As superintendent of Indian affairs in the Northwest territory he at one time advanced $9,000 for supplies. This sum, like that expended in the revolutionary war, was never refunded, though congress acknowledged the justice of both claims. His fine estate, house, library and personal property were sold under execution. Congress finally granted him a pension of $60 a month, but it was garnisheed and seized by creditors. The state of Pennsylvania granted him a pension of $300 a year.

In his old age he lived in a log house beside a traveled road in Pennsylvania and sold supplies to the passing wagoners. Those who visited him in his rude cabin found him dignified and uncomplaining, abounding in anecdotes of the revolutionary and pioneer times. Lewis Cass, governor of Michigan, visited him there. So did Elisha Whittlesey, of Ohio, long time first controller of the United States treasury. "His dwelling," said Mr. Whittlesey, "was a common log house of the western country, that a neighborhood could roll up in an afternoon. There lived the friend and confidant of Washington, the once governor of the fairest portion of creation." In that cabin he died. A plain sandstone monument erected to his memory by the Masons recites that it was "erected to supply the place of a nobler one due from his country."

When General St. Clair died, August 1818, he left a mass of correspondence and manuscripts relating to the revolutionary period, the Indian war and the early government of the Northwest territory. In 1869 the Western Reserve Historical Society of Ohio learned that these papers, already considerably decayed, were in the possession of certain descendants of St. Clair, living in Kansas. The papers had no relation to the history of Kansas, but were of great value in connection with that of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

St. Clair's Papers Edited.

On the recommendation of Governor R. B. Hayes, the Ohio legislature made an appropriation to buy the papers and subsequently they were placed in the hands of William Henry Smith, formerly secretary of the state of Ohio, and a journalist of many years' experience, to be edited and prepared for publication. The work of editing amounted almost to a restoration of many defaced and mutilated documents and was accomplished only by great care and labor and drawing freely from historical documents in Mr. Smith's possession. It resulted in the publication of the "Life and Public Services of Arthur St. Clair," together with the St. Clair papers found in Kansas and fortunately rescued from oblivion. The work does full justice to St. Clair and by a plain statement of facts shows that he was badly treated by the government he had served so well. His name should have been given to one of Indiana's counties.

DEAR SIR OR MADAM:

Have you visited our office and had a talk regarding those Lakeside Park Addition lots that are to be sold at auction next Saturday afternoon? Already many have, but to those who have not, we wish to say that it will be to your interest to thoroughly investigate every point in connection with this sale.

We realize a great many people think it impossible and improbable to put lots up and sell them at auction as you would stock, furniture, etc. However, that is just what we intend to do. LET YOU SAY WHAT THE PROPERTY IS WORTH TO YOU. If you allow a lot to sell for several hundred dollars less than it is worth, you have lost money just the same as the owner, and we have confidence enough in your judgment to believe that you will not allow an opportunity of this kind to pass you by.

REMEMBER, that this property lies closer to the down-town district than any vacant property now upon the market; that the new electric line from Bryan to Hicksville is already under construction to within a few miles of the city limits, and that officials of that road intend to have cars operating over the same to this city by January 1st, 1911, which will mean street car service through the middle of this addition to the city limits at that time; that these lots lie just south of the expensive Forest Park Boulevard; that Walton Avenue, passing through the eastern part of this addition, is the only avenue running entirely across the city which has been recommended as a part of the Boulevard System as set forth in the Civic Beautification plans; that a beautiful Park is being built to the east and north of this addition, and the Maumee River banks on the south of it beautified in an artistic manner.

Besides this, we wish to impress upon your mind that we mean just what we say when we state that every lot put up will be sold to the highest bidder, without limit or reserve, and in this connection wish to call your attention to the accompanying statement given to the News by Mr. S. M. Foster, President of the Fort Wayne Land and Improvement Co.

We have faith in Fort Wayne real estate. Have you? If you have, be on the ground at 1 p. m. Saturday next and get your share of the lots which have such a good future. Free street car service to the grounds. Come and see a lot sold every two minutes. Two auctioneers.

A STATEMENT

Regarding the Auction of Lakeside Lots

So many inquiries have been made regarding the various features on the auction sale of Lakeside lots that a plain statement of facts seems to be in order. The sale will be conducted just as advertised. Each lot put up will be sold to the highest bidder. The buyers will start and close the bidding. No limit of price has been placed on the lots. We believe the time has come to close up the affairs of the company, and we feel that the people will realize the beauty of the location, its close proximity to the city, and the great outlook for the future in this splendid section of the city. We wish to repeat that so far as these lots are concerned the main sewer put in last fall has been paid in full; the new cement sidewalk will be paid in full, and there will be no taxes for the purchaser to pay until 1912.

PLAN TO PUT A CURB ON THE SUICIDE BUSINESS

Retail Druggists Oppose the Sale of Undiluted Carbolic Acid.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 14.—Resolutions were introduced before the convention of the National Retail Druggists' association yesterday which recommended the restriction of the sale of carbolic acid to a mixture of one-third each of acid, glycerine and water, "a preparation that may be taken by would-be suicides in large quantities without causing death."

Another resolution, having for its object the suppression of the "dope fiend," demanded that proprietary medicines containing cocaine, chloral, morphine, codine and other drugs be sold only upon prescription.

The diagnosing of cases and prescribing by druggists was also condemned.

The Chicago delegation demands the change of the name "wood alcohol" to "wood naphtha," that "topers may not be led by the similarity of names to drink the poisonous wood alcohol instead of whisky."

The Ohio Pharmaceutical association presented a resolution protesting against the laws requiring druggists to take out a liquor license to enable them to sell whisky on prescription, "thus classifying the drug store as a saloon, while another law forbids the sale of intoxicating preparations without a prescription."

President C. H. Huhn, of Minneapolis, in his address, declared war on the indiscriminate sale of liquors in drug stores; emphatically announced that a reform was demanded and that the reform must be brought about by the pharmacists themselves.

SONS OF MICHIGAN WILL BANQUET SATURDAY

Program for Notable Dinner of University Men in Fort Wayne.

The "Michigan" banquet program for the big gathering to be held next Saturday evening at the Anthony hotel was made public today. Fort Wayne possesses a number of well-known and capable men who call the University of Michigan their alma mater and the program has been arranged with the view of covering all sides of the university subject from the past to the future. Aside from the speakers named, there will be impromptu addresses by others, including one or two professors of the Michigan faculty. Fielding H. Yost, coach of the champion foot ball team of the west last season, is to be one of the chief speakers.

The program follows:

Introduction of Toast Master .... P. A. Randall

Toastmaster .....J. M. Barrett

"Michigan Spirit" .....E. G. Hoffman

"A University Club"..William C. Geake

"Undergraduate Life"..Dr. J. H. Gilpin

"The Laws" .....William N. Ballou

"Hurry Up" .....Fielding H. Yost

"In Absentee" .....B. Paul Mossman

"The Future" .....T. E. Ellison

Interspersed among these toasts will be a number of Michigan songs and yells which Perry Cooper will lead. The main purpose of this banquet will be the arousing of the old-time college spirit among the men who left the portals of the school some years ago. Fearing that some may have forgotten the words of the college songs, printed copies are to be distributed around at the table.

The banquet is to begin at 6:30 o'clock and Manager Keenan has arranged an elegant menu for the affair.

9,771,512 ALIENS SINCE 1901.

Southern Italians Lead All in Number, With Jews Second.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Since 1901 9,771,512 aliens have arrived in the United States. The races represented have been classified into forty sub-divisions by the statisticians of the immigration bureau. The southern Italians lead all in numbers with a total of 1,781,948, with the Jews second at 976,263. Polish home seekers were third in number, with $73,660. The average amount of money possessed by each alien at landing was $22, but some amazing individual differences are evident. The Spanish-Americans were richest, averaging $104 each, and the Koreans were poorest, with only $7 each.

ITS FIRST FALL MEETING.

Commercial Club to Meet Thursday to Hear Commission Report.

The Fort Wayne Commercial club will hold its first meeting of the fall on tomorrow evening in the club rooms. At that time the reports of the committee appointed early in the summer to investigate the commission form of government will be read. The committee returned several weeks ago from St. Paul, Minn., and Des Moines, Iowa, where it made a study of that type of city government.

SOCIALISTS VS. PROHIBS

Will Debate Liquor Question on Thursday Evening.

The question, "Resolved—That the socialist party, if put into power, would do more to destroy the liquor traffic than would the prohibition party, if it were put into power," is to be the subject of a debate tomorrow evening in the court house assembly room between S. C. Hill, of this city, representing the socialist party, and Rev. C. A. Frakes, who lives in the country, who will argue the negative. The public is invited to listen to the debate.

URGES JAIL FOR UNWASHED.

Unique Treatment for Two Men Who Never Bathe.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 14.—Wilkinson, Ind., being afflicted with two men that never bathe was advised today by Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the state board of health, to have the unwashed quarantined at the county jail, where the sheriff will apply soap and water in profusion. The prescription was sent to the citizens of Wilkinson through Dr. Milo Gibbs, health officer of Hancock county, by whom the complaint had been forwarded to Dr. Hurty.

WAS USING SAWDUST AS "CURE;" NOW IN JAIL

Yankee Doctor With Novel Scheme Runs Afoul of Fraud Law.

Washington, Sept. 14.—The gullibility of the public was probably never more extensively assailed than by Dr. H. F. Merrill, of Gardiner, Me. With proverbial yankee ingenuity he did not attempt to make wooden nutmegs, but he did widely advertise to extract from sawdust a cure for all stomach troubles, and from the root of a common garden flower a cure for epilepsy.

In such a prohibition state as Maine the method of making whisky from potatoes must have appealed to those with an appetite and the doctor knew the frailties of his fellow men when he held out the allurement of converting sweet cider, permissible in all localities, into the seductive, sparkling champagne.

In his category Dr. Merrill did not overlook the unfortunate persons who, because of advanced age or for other reasons, had bald spots upon their craniums. To those he offered for sale an infallible hair tonic which would in three weeks produce a luxuriant growth.

Too Much for Money.

It seemed to the postal officials that he was offering too much for the money and an investigation was started, which resulted in Dr. Merrill being forced to disclose that his "hair restorer" was a 30 per cent. solution of lactic acid, and that he made "whisky" by chopping potatoes fine, placing them in a jar and pouring in molasses, the mixture to stand three months.

To make champagne he advised his clients to place fifteen pounds of brown sugar in a ten-gallon cask and then fill the cask with sweet cider, permitting it to stand eighteen days.

The doctor's cure for stomach troubles was horn bean or ironwood, and he asserted that epilepsy and other fits could be cured by the root of the peony. He also advertised a method of making hard water soft, and to his dupes advised that a two-ounce vial be suspended in the water, promising that after boiling all impurities would adhere to the vial.

Unable to prove to the postal officials that any of his formulas possessed virtue, a fraud order was issued barring Dr. Merrill from the use of the mails. He has been arrested and will be brought to trial.

Bar Morphine as Cure.

Liberal doses of morphine as a cure for the morphine habit do not receive the indorsement of that eminent physician, Uncle Sam. A fraud order was issued yesterday excluding from the use of the mails Dr. J. W. Coblentz and the Compound Oxygen Association of Fort Wayne, Ind.

Dr. Coblentz has extensively advertised a cure for the morphine habit. He has declared that physical restraint is not necessary in his treatment. Inquisitive postoffice inspectors collected an assortment of nearly a dozen samples of medicine used in the treatment. A chemical analysis of the decoctions proved that morphine in large quantities was present, as much in each dose as usually is taken by the average morphine victim.

Many of the patients have been receiving treatment for twenty years. A fraud order has been issued to suppress the business.
